Sub: Advances - Loans - Harpanahalli Taluk - Bandigari hamlet of Yadihalli village - Banakara Nagappa Loan of Rs. 30,000/- Report submitted.

Sri Banakara Nagappa son of Bullappa, Bendigeri h/o Yadihalli village Harpanahalli taluk, has applied for a loan of Rs. 30,000/- to purchase a tractor, a jeep with a trailer and all the accessories required. The record of enquiry made by the Tahsildar, Harpanahalli is enclosed. The value of the security lands based on prewar prices is Rs. 46282/- The Agricultural Demonstrator Harpanahalli, in his letter Rec. 434/50 dated 22-1-51 reports that the applicants lands are suitable for tractor cultivation and that a tractor with the necessary accessories a jeep and a trailer are quite essential for him. The applicant is willing to hypothecate the lands recommended by the Tahsildar for the loan. All the lands are registered in the name of the applicant and are in his sole possession and enjoyment. An encumbrance certificate is also produced by the party for all the security lands. The applicant owns the security lands in common with his major brother of a joint family of which the applicant is the managing member. The applicant has a major son. The major brother and the major son are willing to hypothecate the lands to the Government for the loan. There are no other claimants to the security lands. The applicant is eligible for a loan of Rs. 30,000/- as the value of the security lands based on prewar prices is Rs. 46,282/- The applicant prepared to purchase the tractor, its accessories, a jeep and a trailer even if their cost exceeds Rs. 30,000/- by supplementing it from his private funds and produce receipts. As the price list received from Messrs. Volkot Bros., Madras, does not contain the prices of all the machinery required by the applicant, the correct price of the tractor etc., is not known. The applicant says that the approximate cost of all the machinery comes to Rs. 30,000/- and that he will purchase the tractor, etc , within a 4 months from the date of disbursement of loan amount and produce necessary receipts.

2. As the applicant is solvent and the application is bonafide, the loan applied for may be recommended to the Government for sanction.

Please see the Bd's Ref and its proceedings on pp 1-2 C/f.

The proposal in the file relates to the recommendation of the Bd. of Rev. for sanctioning a loan of Rs 30,000/- to Sri B. Nagappa of Bandigari (hamlet of Yadihalli village), Harpanahalli Taluk, Bellary Dt. for the purchase of a tractor and its accessories for bringing his lands under tractor cultivation.

p 84 of ML (T) Manual Vol I

2/ Under rule IX of the Madras Land Improvement and Agriculturists' Loan (P.I. and Agricultural Machinery or Plant) Rules 1933, the value of the security offered should exceed at least by 1/3 of the amount of loan applied for. The applicant in the present case is willing to hypothecate lands valued at Rs 46282/- at prewar rate, which amount clearly exceeds the loan applied for by more than the required proportion.
